II. Practice

Read the passage. Answer the question. Fill in the correct circle.

People all over the world are different. Some people are friendly, some people are shy. Some are young, and others are old. Some things we cannot change, for example if we are tall or short. Some things we can choose, for example if our hair is long or short. But the most important thing is to be happy with the person we are. Being different makes us special!
