

Grade 3

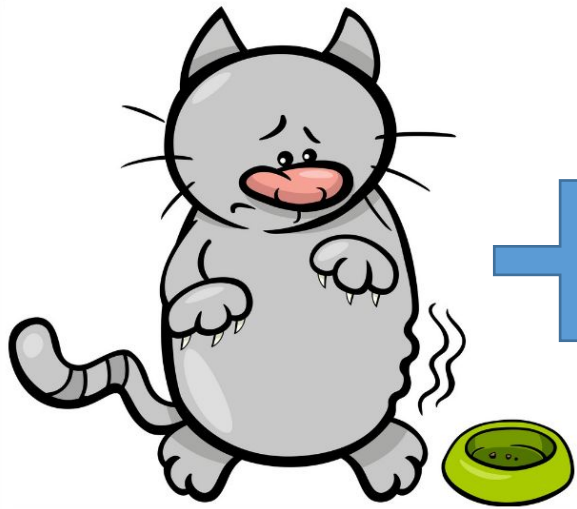

English

Review

What will we learn today?

- We will remember future tense.
- We will remember how to compare.
- We will practice writing sentences to compare.

Solve this picture puzzle!
Look at the pictures.
Make a sentence using words.

+ going to

+

+

The cat is or

It is going to eat

fish.

What is a verb?

They are action words. Something we do.

1) wake up

2) brush

3) eat

4) jump

5) walk

6) write or study

7) paint

8) sleep

Let's remember the subject of a sentence.

Who is the sentence about? Can you remember pronouns?

I

You

It →

←
She

He

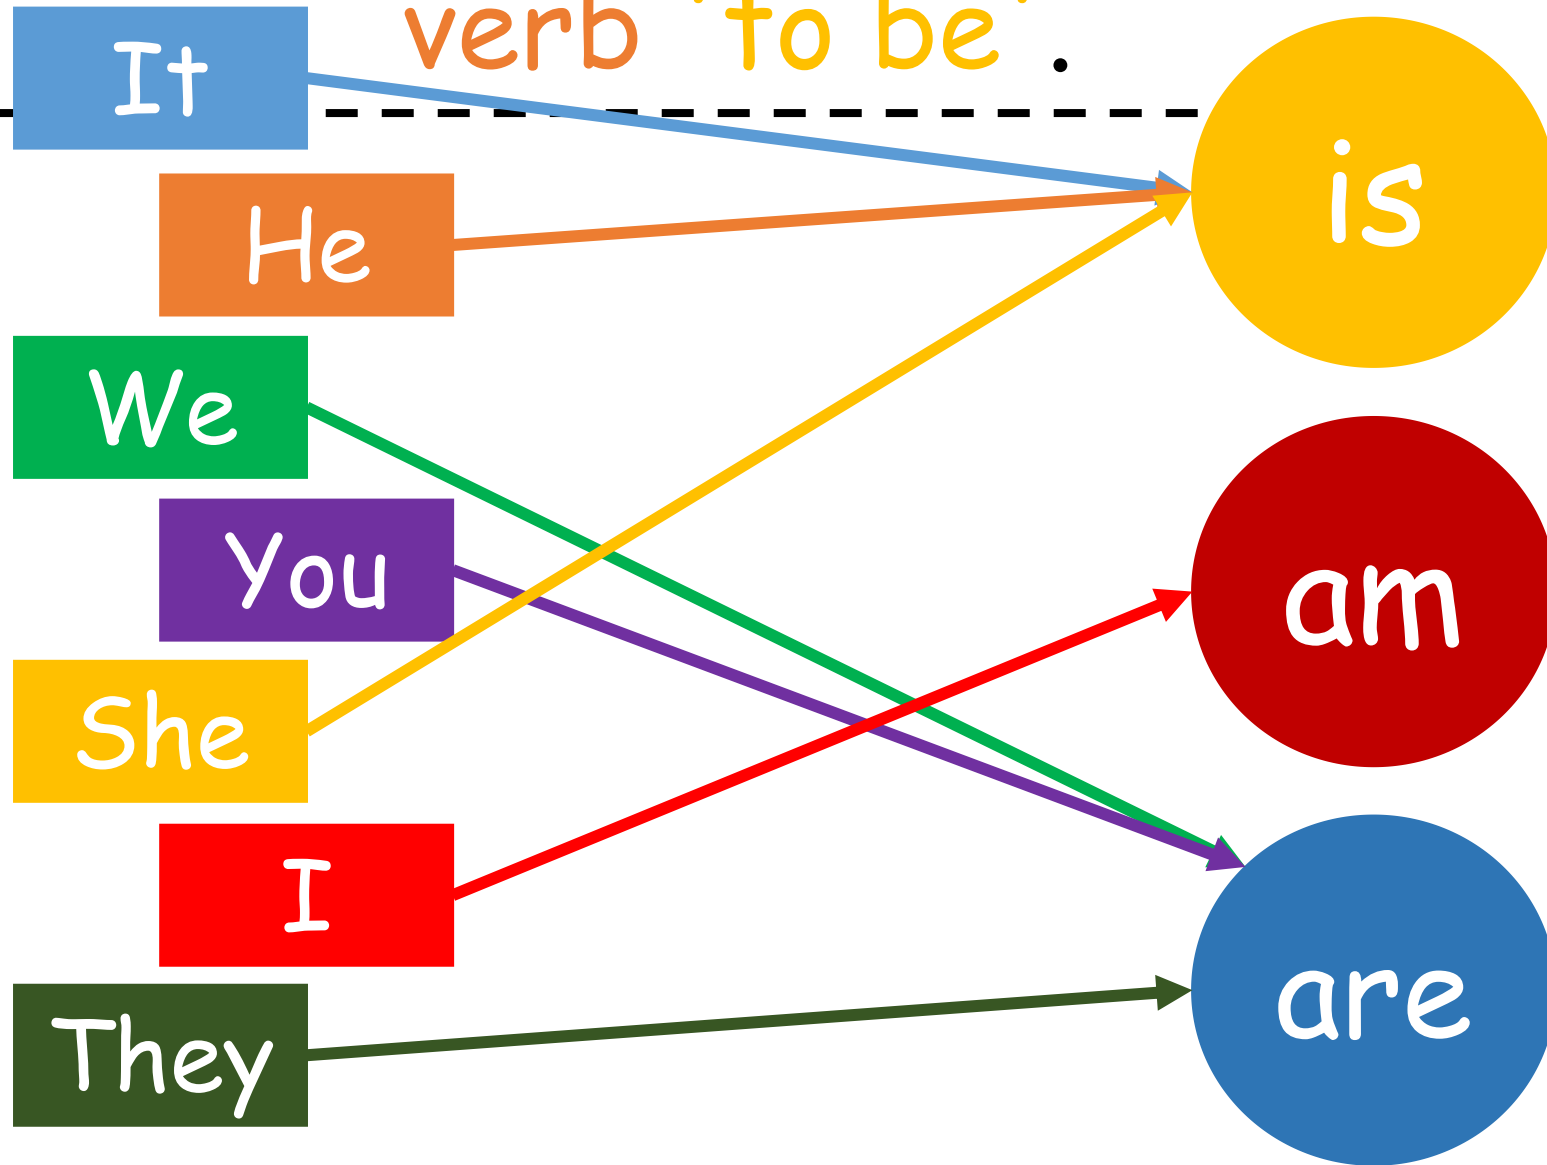

They

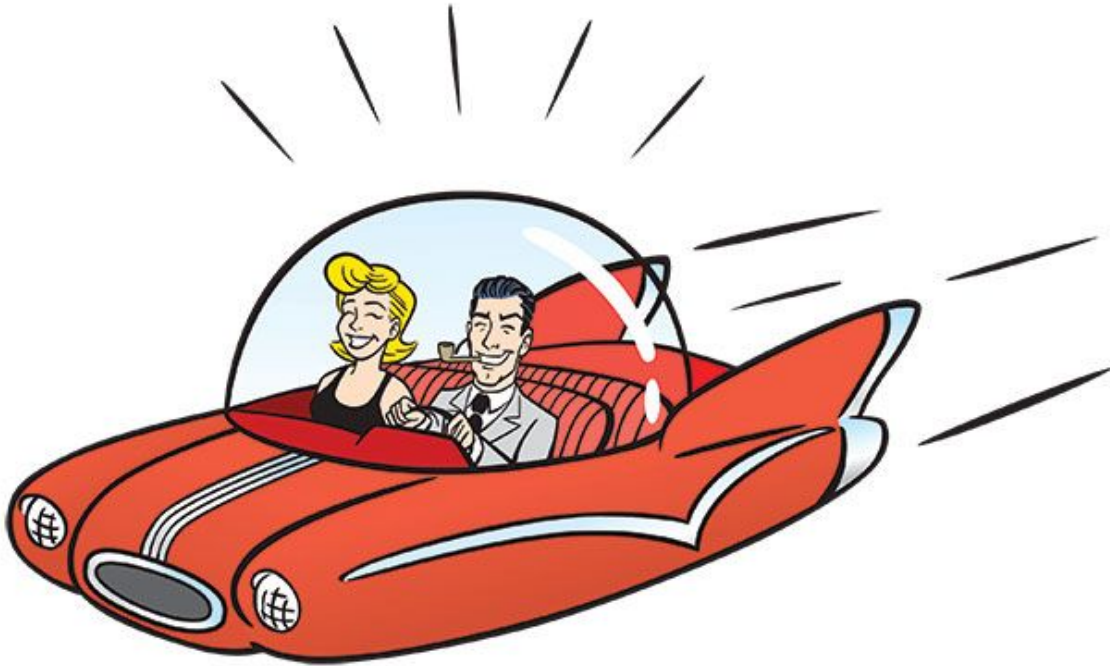

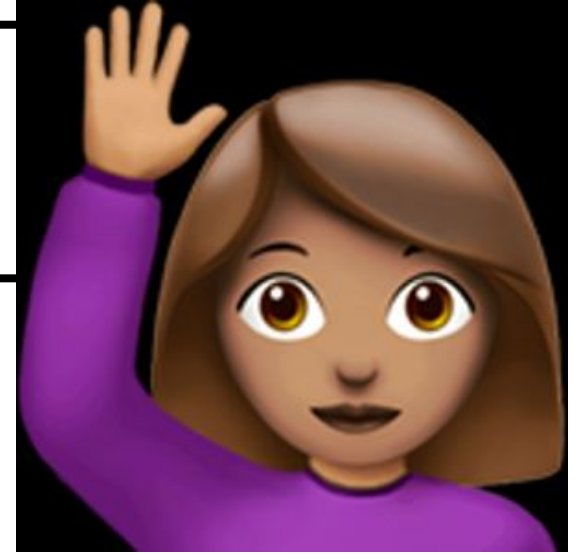

We

Draw a line to match the pronouns to the verb 'to be'.

Future

What is the future?

Future

What is the future?

In a minute

In an hour

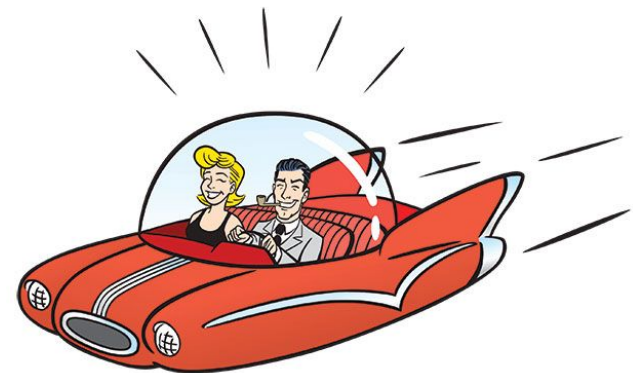

Tomorrow

On the weekend

Next week

Next month

Next year

Future tense

Can you remember how to make a sentence using the future tense?

Future tense

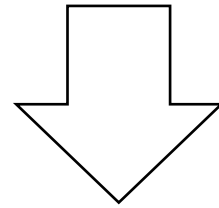

Can you remember how to make a sentence using the future tense?

subject + to be + going to + verb.

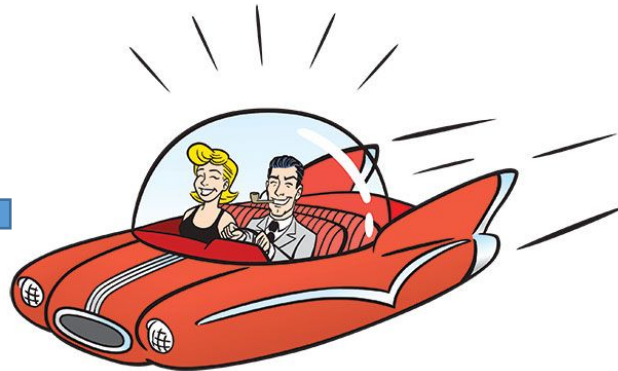

Future tense

subject + to be + going to + verb.

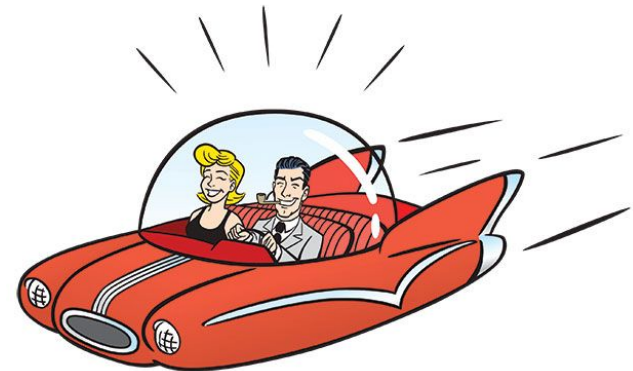

He + is + going to + eat.

Future tense

Remember!

subject + to be + going to + verb.

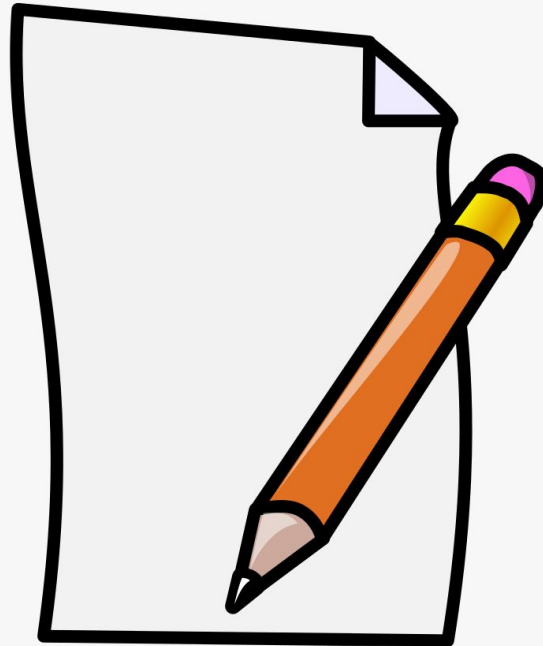

Question Time

1. Finish these 5 questions.

Write on a piece of paper.

2. Hands on head when finished!

Write the sentence using the future tense.
(to be + going to + verb)

1) They _____ (watch) a movie.

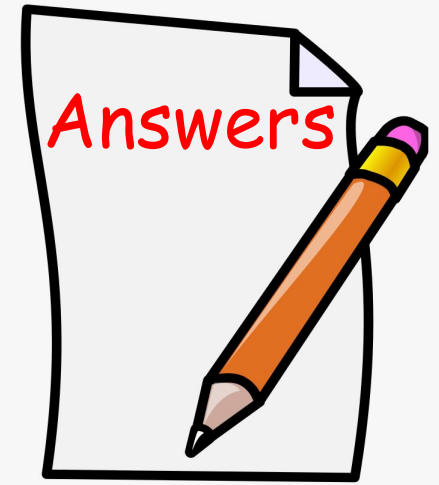

2) You _____ (win) the next game!

3) I _____ (read) all weekend.

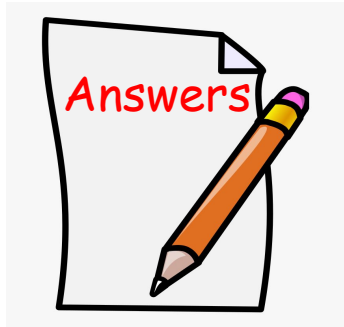

4) He _____ (drink) 10 coconuts!

5) She _____ (finish) all her homework.

Now let's go through the answers.

(to be + going to + verb)

1) They are going to watch (watch) a movie.

2) You are going to win (win) the next game!

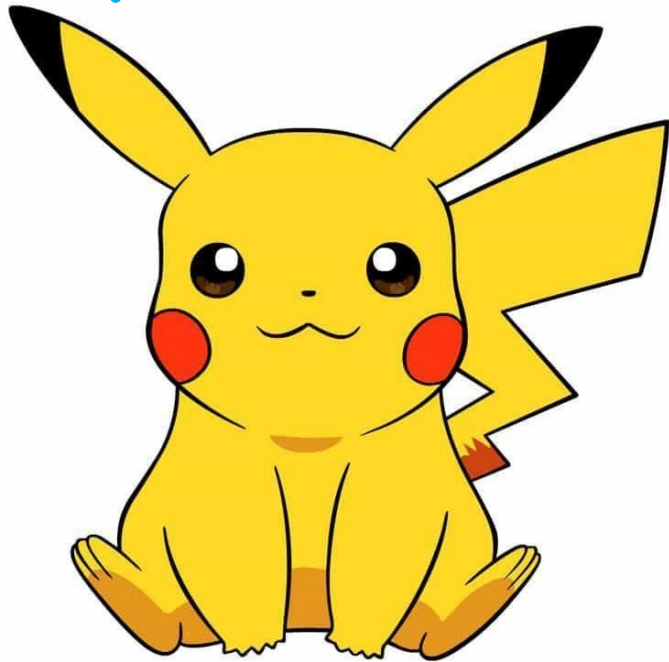

3) I am going to read (read) all weekend.

4) He is going to drink (drink) 10 coconuts!

5) She is going to finish (finish) all her homework.

What is an adjective?

happy

yellow cute

dangerous

They are words that are used to describe nouns.

Look at these adjectives.

Short adjectives

Long adjectives

young enormous beautiful

cute

red fierce old delicious

happy

ugly

dangerous

fast intelligent strong extraordinary sad

poisonous frightening short tall

Let's remember comparing two things using short and long adjectives!

Remember to say each comparative after the teacher reads it.

How do we compare two things when they are the same?

The tiger is strong.

The tiger is dangerous.

The lion is strong.

The lion is dangerous.

How do we compare
two things
when they are the same?

The tiger is as strong as the lion.

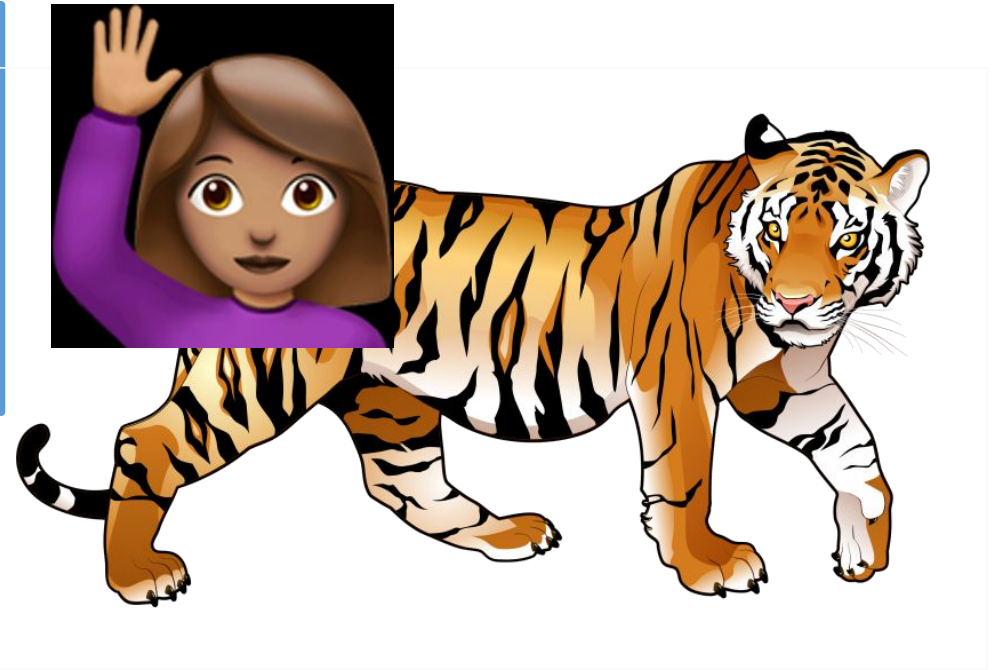

The tiger is as dangerous as the lion.

How do we compare two things when they are different?

The kitten is weak.

The kitten is friendly.

The tiger is strong.

The tiger is dangerous.

How do we compare two
things when they are different?

The tiger is stronger than the kitten.

The tiger is more dangerous than the kitten.

Let's learn comparing
more than two things!

Remember to say each superlative after the teacher reads it.

How do we compare
more than two things?

The ostrich is the fastest animal.

The dolphin is the most intelligent animal.

The peacock is the most beautiful animal.

Question Time

1. We will write 5 sentences. Write on a piece of paper.
2. Hands on head when you have finished one sentence!

Now, write
your own sentence
comparing!

You have one minute to write.

dog - pig dangerous - intelligent - cute - small - happy

Now, write
two sentences
comparing!

You have two minutes to write.

peacock - snake

poisonous - beautiful - thin - long - fierce

Now, write
two sentences
comparing!

You have two minutes to write.

dog - cat

extraordinary - adorable - cute - happy - small

Max Monkey

Now, write a sentence
using a superlative!

You have one minute to write.

Matt Monkey

Mary Monkey

Max Monkey - Matt Monkey - Mary Monkey

extraordinary - dangerous - happy - funny - small

The red dragon

Now, write a sentence
using a superlative!

You have one minute to write.

The blue dragon

The green
dragon

The red dragon - The blue dragon - The green dragon frightening - dangerous - beautiful long - short - bushy - spiky

